About the author:

Henry Cole is the celebrated illustrator of many, many children's books. Along with his artwork, he has also authored a number of books, including the novel series A Nest for Celeste. His most recent picture book is Try a Little Kindness, published in October 2018. His book Unspoken, which received multiple starred reviews, is the story of a runaway slave told only in drawings, encouraging the reader to experience the story through its haunting images.

Henry Cole was born on a dairy farm near Purcellville, Virginia. After attending college at Virginia Tech, he became an adored elementary-school science teacher for 16 years. Mr. Cole has always loved art and science, which has made him a keen observer of details in nature. He is a self-taught artist whose mother, a professional illustrator herself, gave him many pointers along the way. He prefers to use acrylic paints and colored pencils in his illustrations. He now lives in Florida.
