Katherine Applegate

Naperville Reads is delighted to welcome New York Times bestselling author Katherine Applegate on Tuesday, January 29th. Ms. Applegate will talk with students about her career as an author and her new book Wishtree.

To guarantee a personalized copy of her book, please return this order form with payment (check payable to Builta Elementary) by Monday, January 28th. If you miss that date, there will be a limited supply of signed books available for purchase through Friday, February 8th:

_____ Wishtree, $16.99 (Hardcover)

Trees can't tell jokes, but they can certainly tell stories. . . .

Red is an oak tree who is many rings old. Red is the neighborhood "wishtree"—people write their wishes on pieces of cloth and tie them to Red's branches. Along with a crow named Bongo and other animals who seek refuge in Red's hollows, this wishtree watches over the neighborhood.

You might say Red has seen it all.

Until a new family moves in. Not everyone is welcoming, and Red's experience as a wishtree is more important than ever.

_____ Wishtree: Adult Edition, $15.99 (Paperback)

A special edition for adults of Katherine Applegate's New York Times-bestselling novel about an oak tree and a crow who help their neighbors embrace their differences.

Trees can't tell jokes, but they can certainly tell stories. . . .

Red is an oak tree who is many rings old. Red is the neighborhood "wishtree"—people write their wishes on pieces of cloth and tie them to Red's branches. Along with a crow named Bongo and other animals who seek refuge in Red's hollows, this wishtree watches over the neighborhood.

When a new family moves in, not everyone is welcoming, and Red's experience as a wishtree is more important than ever. With a message of inclusion for dreamers and welcomers, this is a book for our lives and times.
