WHO we are

Indian Prairie Special Needs PTA (IPSN) serves all schools located in District 204.

We are committed to partnering with the district to create a more inclusive educational experience for all children who require a special education plan.

Membership is open to EVERYONE!

WHAT we do

CONNECT the community by offering inclusive events.

EDUCATE about opportunities available within the community and the educational process.

SUPPORT families of children who require educational supports and host events to help you connect with others in similar situations.

NEW! Speaker Series

IPSN PTA is excited to announce each PTA meeting will now feature a guest speaker!

Topics range from early childhood, IEP's & 504's, all the way through your child aging out of the public school system.
