2017 4-H Workshops Summer Series

About the Series

The summer workshop series from University of Illinois Extension and DuPage County 4-H is back! This year, we offer three creative programs to give youth, ages 8 to 12, hands-on experiences in the kitchen and/or the art studio.

Participants will learn, gain new skills and, of course, have fun!

Topics & Days

FOOD PRESERVATION - Tues., June 20 @ 1-3:30 p.m.

Learn how to preserve strawberry jam, and take home a pint to eat or share! Youth also will get hands-on experience in cutting fruit, measuring ingredients, following a recipe, and understanding kitchen safety and the science behind food preservation.

MIXED MEDIA ABSTRACT - Wed., June 21 @ 1-3:30 p.m.

Complete a canvas work of art! Youth will learn painting techniques, including color choice, brush strokes, varied applications and more. Everyone will take home a masterpiece of their own making, plus skills to use in their next painting project.

BAKING BASICS - Thurs., June 22 @ 1-3:30 p.m.

Learn baking basics and take home a dozen chocolate chip cookies! Youth will gain an understanding of kitchen safety and basic baking skills, such as reading a recipe, measuring ingredients, mixing, timing and food storage. The group also will make marshmallow crispy treats to eat.
