

Naperville Juniores

The Naperville Juniores are sponsored by the Naperville Junior Woman's Club, an organization that has been a leader in community service since 1967. Both clubs are part of a much larger volunteer service organization - the General Federation of Women's Clubs. GFWC is one of the world's largest and oldest women's volunteer service organizations.

Do you know a young lady who loves to volunteer and help her community? Look no further.....The Naperville Juniores are a group of young women ages 13-18 who work together to meet the needs of Naperville and it's surrounding communities through volunteer service projects.
