

7TH ANNUAL

LEARNING TO LEAD

HIGH SCHOOL SUMMER PROGRAM

July 22 - 23, 2019 • 9AM - 3PM Daily

Learning to Lead

Are you interested in learning more about leadership? Do you want to develop your own skills with team building, communication and positive group dynamics? Do you envision yourself as a leader?

Join Us

Please join us for a two-day interactive program that will focus on leadership, team building and positive group outcomes. The program is open to high school age students and will be offered at Lewis University's Romeoville Campus. This program is designed for those who hold leadership positions in high school (student council, sports, clubs, honor societies, etc.) as well as those who would like to in the future. All high school age students are welcome!

Learn From Trained Experts

The program will be facilitated by Lewis University faculty – individuals who are trained experts in the areas of positive leadership, team building, effective communication and ethical decision making. Come be part of this fascinating exploration of the leader within YOU!

Register by June 30, 2019
