WHERE TO GO IF YOU HAVE A CONCERN

Generally speaking, questions or concerns should first be discussed with the staff member who is closest to the situation. It is always best to follow the chain of command to ensure that all parties involved are properly informed of the situation. Parents should expect a response from the staff person listed, or his or her designee, within one business day to discuss their concern.

PDAC Promise

PDAC promises to engage in active conversation concerning issues that are important to you.

We promise to stand along side you when you need an advocate.

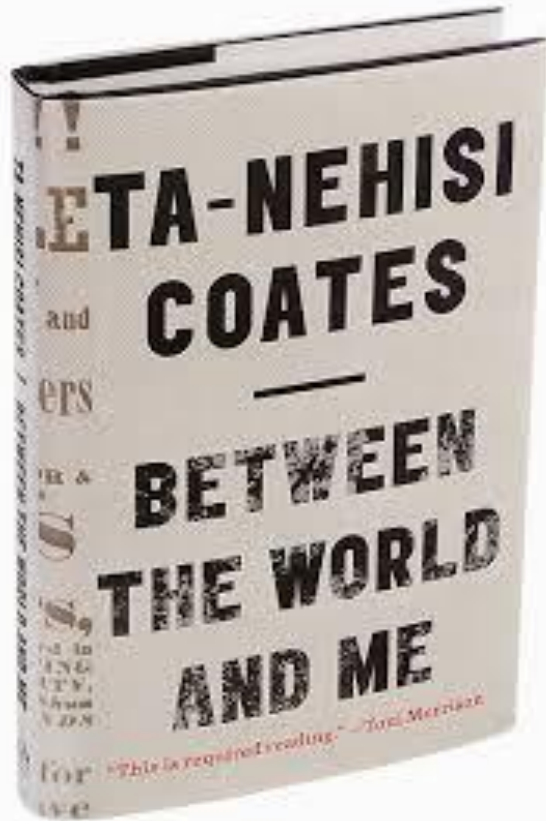

We promise to work with the district to ensure all families and students in our community feel welcomed in their respective school building and in their classrooms.

We promise to continue to bring awareness to the meaning of equity.

And most importantly we promise to advance District 204's commitment to equity and educational excellence always.

PDAC Book Study:

Between the World and Me

In a series of essays, written as a letter to his son, Coates confronts the notion of race in America and how it has shaped American history.

But First...

The Link Between Poverty and Scholastic Achievement

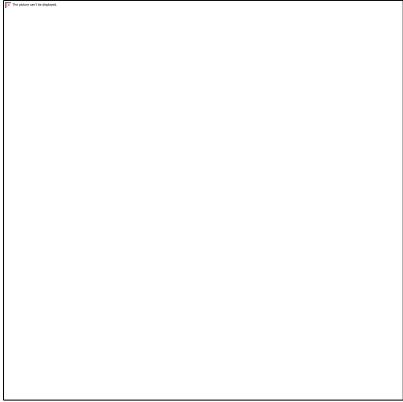

How Poverty Affects Classrooms

Group Discussions

What can we, as parents (e.g. community partnerships, corporate partnerships, school partnerships, PTA partnerships), do to insure that the programs and resources offered across the district provide equitable opportunities at each school?

How do differences in PTA funding from school-to-school (e.g. field trips, classroom parties, PTA events, resources, volunteers) impact or limit student's educational experiences? How PDAC and community members can help?

We are proud to partner with these local businesses that support PDAC and their mission!
